

To William Stokes D.V.M.

Please recommend that federal agencies immediately begin accepting the alternative methods found to be useful. Please move forward with recommended improvements in the alternatives without delaying the acceptance of the tests' current forms + go beyond the current efforts by developing and validating non-animal methods to completely replace the use of the Draize test.

Sincerely,
Jennifer L Martin