

Timothy Farner
Private Citizen

March 18, 2018

Subject: NTP General Public Comments Submission

Comment:

We have got to be more proactive on health issues like this. Finding out on the back end, after some damage is done, is not acceptable. Report after report, came out years ago, addressing the dangers of the contaminants - but it is years later that we investigate. there should be a requirement that any man-made items be tested, like with drugs, before being allowed to be mass produced and distributed.